

PROJECT MANAGEMENT SERVICES

Plan. Schedule. Control. Deliver.

PRINCIPLES supports owners, developers and contractors across the full project lifecycle, from feasibility and early planning through construction, closeout, operation and maintenance, with one experienced team.

REGIONAL EXPERTISE
LANDMARK RESULTS

Turning complex projects
into delivered landmarks

Our 8 Project Management Disciplines

ONE TEAM FROM FIRST PLAN TO FINAL HANDOVER

|                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                      |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 01 Project &amp; Construction ManagementTailored management plans that combine experience with local knowledge for high-quality results.Learn More → | 02 Planning &amp; SchedulingRealistic schedules, critical-path analysis and recovery plans to avoid delays.Learn More → | 03 Cost Control &amp; Quantity SurveyingStrict cost control from inception to final account, for value-for-money projects.Learn More → | 04 EPCMCoordinated design, procurement and construction to shorten timelines and cut costs.Learn More → | 05 Project Feasibility StudiesFeasibility, financial and market assessments that balance quality, cost and time.Learn More → | 06 Project Strategy DevelopmentEarly strategic decisions aligned with the client's standards and objectives.Learn More → | 07 Claims ManagementEvidence-based preparation, evaluation and defence of time and cost claims.Learn More → | 08 Value EngineeringInnovative, cost-conscious alternatives that maximize the return on every dollar.Learn More → |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

More Services We Provide

Not sure where to start?

Our team can assess your project's stage, risks and goals, and recommend the right management approach.

Talk to Our Experts →

Call or contact us

Our End-to-End Process

Why PRINCIPLES?

Projects Today. Landmarks Tomorrow.

Since 2012, our core team of architects and engineers has delivered large multi-hundred-million-dollar projects across the MENA, with clarity, control and integrity.

30+
Years of experience

USD 5B+
Diriyah Program, KSA

110+
Projects delivered in Jordan